

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

As this collection of select studies goes to print I want to express my warmest appreciation to the authors who presented them at the 2000 conference of the Society of Phenomenology and Literature, in Cambridge, Mass. and those who followed us to our session at the American Philosophical Association in New York, December 2000. Their dedication and inventive spirit carries our precious work ahead.

My assistant-secretaries Jeff Hurlburt and Louis Houthakker deserve thanks for their dedicated help in the preparation of these conferences as well as in preparation of this volume. Particular thanks are due Robert Wise Jr. for proofreading the volume and preparing the Index of Names.
