

Contents

Table of Cases	xv
Table of Legislation	xxxvii

PART A INTRODUCTION

Chapter 1 Background	3
Localization, Characterization, Substance, and Procedure	5
Some Cognate Matters: Limitation, Evidence	10
Classifications of Relief	13
Scope and Perspective of a book on Conflicts Relief	16
Comparative Law Dimensions	16
Structure and Composition of the Book	18

PART B REMEDIALIST THEORY AND POLICY: EXPLORING SINGLE BRIGHT LINE LOGIC

Chapter 2 The Remedial Judgment	21
The Ultimate Local Form and the Transnational Context	21
Chapter 3 Forum Policy	27
Procedural Justiciability in the Conflict of Laws: the Remedial Dimensions	27
Convenience (as Practicability) in Remedial Adjudication	30
Rational or Judicial Justice	32
Efficiency: Minimizing Procedural Conflicts	34
Legal Mandation, Public Policy, State Interest	35
Chapter 4 Applicable Remedial Law	39
Where Are We Now?	39
Barings : A Case Study	40
The Facts and the Contentions	42
The Issues: 'Proper Law', 'Remedy'	44
The Decision and its Consequences and Implications	46
A(n Interim) Conclusion: The Problem	48

x Contents

Chapter 5 Enforcing Non-'Self-Executing' Remedies	49
Enforcement, Execution	49
The Role of the Lex Fori	50
Territory and Res Judicata	52
Chapter 6 Objective Localization	57
Barings Resumed: Remedies and the Centre of Gravity	57
Conclusion	62

PART C PARTICULAR RELIEF IN PERSONAM

Chapter 7 Compensatory Damages and other Money Awards in Personam	65
Preliminary	65
Compensatory Damages	71
General	71
The Compensatory Principle in the Conflict of Laws: General
Issues of Terminology	74
Breach of Contract	77
Quantum	79
Interest	82
Currency of award	83
Taxation	85
The claimant's contributory negligence	86
Heads or measure of damage	88
Natural pecuniary loss (excluding exchange contracts)	89
Benefit transferor's breach	89
Benefit transferee's breach	90
Consequential pecuniary loss	91
Non-pecuniary loss	92
The Law on Mitigation of Loss or Damage	93
Tort	95
General Considerations	95
The Meaning and Scope of Policy	98
Quantum	101
Heads of damage	104
Restitutionary (or Disgorgement) Damages	108
Breach of Contract	108
What are Restitutionary Damages?	108
A Summary Overview of the Present Law	114
Tort	115
The Practical and Analytical Amplitude of Tort-Induced Restitutionary Damages	115

Equitable Damages	117
Nominal and Contemptuous Damages	119
Aggravated Damages	120
Exemplary or Punitive Damages	121
Damages Under European Union Law	123
An Addendum: A.G. v. Blake	127
Chapter 8 Injunctions and Interim Relief	131
Essence and Variety of Injunctive Relief	131
Classifying Injunctions	132
Interlocutory Injunctions	134
Antisuit Injunctions	134
The Common Law: Airbus Industrie GIE v Patel and Others	134
Freezing Orders (the Mareva Jurisdiction)	140
Staying Forum Actions and the Declination of Jurisdiction	144
The Brussels Convention	144
Internal Law	146
Further Interim Orders	148
Search Orders (the Anton Piller Jurisdiction)	148
Disclosure Orders	150
Final Injunctions	152
Chapter 9 Remedial Performance of Contracts	159
Specific Performance in Domestic, Conflicts and Comparative Law	159
Availability of and Scope for Specific Performance in Conflicts Cases	164
English Law Generally	164
The Relevant Principles from Jurisdiction	166
The species of contracts not specifically performable	168
Gratuitous and voluntary contracts	168
Trusts	169
Wholly or substantially personal contracts	169
Court-supervised contracts	171
Contracts and mutuality	172
The (in)adequacy of compensatory, or liquidated, sums	172
The feasibility of performance	175
A Defendant or contractual subject-matter not subject to forum jurisdiction	175
Public policy	177
The Procedural Aspects: the Action for Specific Performance	178
The Courts: Choosing to Sue in England	179
Formal Grant of Specific Performance	180
Specific performance subject to compensatory damages	180
Post-judgment Enforcement of the Remedy	182

xii Contents

The Issue of Statements of Cause (Pleadings)	183
The Matter of Proper Parties	185
Comparativist Perspectives	188
A Recapitulation	189
Other Performance Relief: Judicial Enforcement of Contractually Stipulated Remedies	191
Forum-Selecting Clauses in English Law	194
Background and the general law	194
Brussels and Lugano Convention cases	195
Common Law: the Eleftheria -type principles	196
A brief note about arbitration agreements before the courts	197
Agreed Payments Clauses	197
Liquidated sums other than penalty clauses	197
Unenforceable penalty clauses	201
Deposit and Part-Payment Forfeiture Clauses	202
Delivery Clauses	204
Conclusion	206
Chapter 10 Remedial Restitution	209
Forum Perspectives on Localizing Restitution	209
The importance and development of remedial restitution law	210
The pre-requirements for localization: jurisdiction, characterization, and procedure	214
The active “restitutionary interest” or “right to recover”	218
Formal Aspects of Restitutionary Recovery	222
Preliminaries	222
General	226
Personal Restitutionary Remedies	227
Scope of restitutionary recoverability	227
Restitution of money had and received, and of money paid	229
Restitution by a quantum meruit, or of a quantum valebat:
reasonable recompense	230
Restitution by an account of profits	231
Rescission of voidable contracts	234
Proprietary Restitutionary Remedies	236
Tracing Orders: Legal and Equitable	238
Subrogation	242
General	242
Establishing the Right to Subrogation and its Legal Consequences	244
Judicial Imposition of a Constructive Trust or of a Lien	247
Conclusion	251

PART D RELIEF IN REM

Chapter 11 Remedial Declarations and Relief in Rem	255
Jurisdictional and Other Factors of General Application	255
Interpretations of European Union Law	259
The Construction of Legal Instruments	260
Family Law and Status Cases	263
Negative Declarations	264
A Note About Other Relief in Rem	266

PART E ENVOI

Chapter 12 Remedies and Localism	271
Index	277