

12 Goodbye Germany – Hello Australia (Day 1) (→ after p. 17)

a) Read the introduction to the TV programme. Translate the manager's part into German. Then work out Petra and Lukas's parts.

Petra and Lukas are biology students. They would like to go to Australia for some work experience, so they applied for the jobs on the Great Barrier Reef. They have been offered the jobs on a temporary contract. A film team is with them. They have just landed in Sydney, their first stop.

Hotel manager:

Petra:

Lukas:

G'day. Can I help you?

Hello, I am ... and this is ... • from Germany • sent e-mail • asked for a room

That's right. Come in, I'll show you your room. Have you just arrived? You must be tired.

be on the plane for 35 hours • very tired • what time breakfast? • stay three days in Sydney

Next day

Morning to you. I hope you have slept well. Now what would you like to have for breakfast? Tea or coffee? Help yourselves to the rest.

I'd like ... • Lukas wants ... • thank you

Are you here on holiday? Where are you going?

going to stay at the Great Barrier Reef • work as rangers • want to get some work experience

I hope you will enjoy yourselves.

Later

Here key • go out and have a look at Sydney

So you are doing some sight-seeing today. What are you going to see?

would like to go to ... and ...

Well then. Have a nice day.

Thank you • bye

b) Practise and rehearse the scene in groups (roles: Petra, Lukas, hotel manager). One of you is the director. He/She tries to improve your play.

c) Film the scene.
