

Table of contents

		Topics	Useful language and skills
	1 Preparing for the Show Page 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Booking a stand and services • Organizing equipment • Trade fair invitations • Preparing staff 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Trade fair equipment and furnishings • Inviting clients and customers
Business cards
	2 Managing the Stand Page 14	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Problems on arrival • Stand set-up • Dealing with customers at the stand: From greeting clients to arranging appointments and calming people • Typical stand visitors 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stand vocabulary • Sorting out problems • Making and dealing with complaints • Asking for and giving directions
Personal space
	3 Demonstrating and Presenting at the Show Page 22	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attracting people to the stand • Product promotion at the stand • Trade fair facts and figures • Lead management • Presentation methods 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promoting products • Presentation phrases • Describing trends and explaining charts
Presenting in front of international audiences
	4 Networking Page 30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Networking events • Liaising with potential business partners • Virtual trade shows 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inviting customers to events • Positioning statements • Initiating a conversation and responding appropriately • Hedging techniques
Getting the ball rolling – Small Talk
	5 Talking Shop Page 38	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cross-cultural challenges to global business • Discussing business opportunities with new contacts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Trade vocabulary • Ironing out difficulties with business partners • Clarifying issues and offering solutions • Licensing terms
Guanxi: Doing business in China
	6 Following up on the Show Page 46	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • From lead forms to new business partners • Evaluating trade fair experiences • The future of trade fairs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Expressions of reference • Personalizing follow-up emails • Conveying commitment • Sealing the deal
Politeness issues
	Business Challenge 1 Page 54	Dealing with the unexpected
	Business Challenge 2 Page 55	Passing on your expertise
	Business Challenge 3 Page 56	Meeting a cross-cultural challenge

Intercultural Skills

Page 57 Self Assessment Page 58–61 Partner Files Page 62–71 Transcript
Page 72–75 Answer Key Page 76–79 Useful Phrases Page 80–87 A-Z Wordlist