

11 Wordwise: Jenny and her mum

It is 7 o'clock on a Tuesday evening. Jenny is in the kitchen. Her mum comes into the kitchen and picks up her bag. Complete the sentences with the right words from the box.

- salads problem hate
- means diet good unhealthy
- big evening class don't

Jenny: Mum, where are you going?

Mum: I'm going to my Italian _____. It starts at half past seven.

Jenny: Oh, no! You can't go today. I need you! I've got a real _____!

Mum: What's wrong?

Jenny: Oh, Mum, I just _____ my stomach! Look at it! It's really _____!

Mum: What? Is that a joke? You're beautiful!

Jenny: No, I'm not. I really need to go on a _____. I must start tomorrow. I mustn't eat any _____ food. So, that _____ no chips and no chocolate! Can you help me?

Mum: Well, of course. But we usually have healthy food. And we _____ have chips very often at home. You can just eat lots of _____ food at school, too.

Jenny: Yes, that's a great idea. I can just eat _____ every day.

Mum: Well, you can eat other things, too, Jenny. Remember, you're fine as you are.

Jenny: Hmm ... of course you think that. You're my mum!

12 Wordwise: On the table

Look at the table. Write the words for the different pictures.

